finished in less the 20 mins spend 6 mins on the due to how bad it was! Refunded. Kind of an interesting experience. It's a good looking short little game. At this price tag you should try it if it looks interesting to you.. It's good, well worth the price. It's slightly scary/intense but not enough that I would call it horror. The artwork is very nice and the games simplicity works well. Music is also great.my one and only problem with the game is the noise it makes when you die, it just doesn't belong and feels weird.. This game is pretty simple: on each level, there's a toy to collect (but you don't have to), a key and a locked door. The moment you pick up the key, a monster start to chase you and you have to get to the exit, avoid the other monsters and traps before you get caught. There's only 8 levels and I finished it in 30 minutes, though I died a lot. I have to recommend this game because it's cheap and worth it. Except for a little problem about the movement (you move square by square so, if you start to move, you can't change direction until you reach the next square), I really liked the game.. Great game! 5/7. For the price this is a nice little game for a young gamer.. This is a cute little game, truly. I bought this for my friend's daughter to play when she came over and I needed to attend to something else for a bit. She's had quite a bit of fun with it, and after watching her play I had to try it! Now I feel the need to go after the achievements. Simple, entertaining, and I like the strange jelly bean monsters. Great way to pass some time.
